OFFICIAL LETTER

To: Whom It May Concern
From: Norman E. Hoffman, Ph.D.
Re: Lisa Taylor-Austin
Date: September 1, 2007

Be it known that Lisa Taylor-Austin, having completed the credentialing process set forth by the board, and having the necessary education and forensic mental health experience; The National Board of Forensic Evaluators, (NBFE) has granted her the title Certified Forensic Mental Health Evaluator (CFMHE).

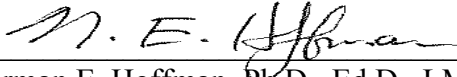

This esteemed title is the only forensic mental health credential recognized and endorsed by the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the American Mental Health Counselors Association (AMHCA). In that regard, this official letter of documentation is presented to any who might inquire. Ms. Taylor-Austin holds the following degrees and license(s): Master of Science in Education, National Certified Counselor, (NCC), Licensed Professional Counselor, (LPC) Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC).

The National Board of Forensic Evaluators (NBFE) a division of Hoffman Institute, (HI) attest that the Certified Forensic Mental Health Evaluator (CFMHE) is qualified to conduct forensic mental health evaluations and to testify as a court expert. The (CFMHE) has attended specialized training to interview, assess, diagnose, prepare written forensic mental health reports, and appear as an expert in court as an ethical, unbiased and dispassionate witness. Furthermore, NBFE attest that the (CFMHE) holds a current state license to conduct independent counseling, and maintains professional liability insurance.

NBFE will respond to correspondence that may be necessary to verify active credentials and inquiries by professional bodies or the public.

The (CFMHE) has the diplomate status to certify that the recipient has met the necessary standards by the NBFEE and its peers to act with a high degree of professional competence.
